32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR A
November 7–8, 2026

KEEP YOUR LAMP BURNING

We often put off what matters most. Wisdom invites us to seek God today; Saint Paul reminds us that, even in grief, Christ's resurrection gives us hope. In the Gospel, the wise bridesmaids teach us to keep our faith ready through daily faithfulness. This week, make time for prayer, take the first step towards forgiveness, and reach out to someone who is mourning. These small acts of love help keep our lamps burning. Let us welcome Christ each day, so that we are ready to meet him whenever he comes.

Fr. Isaac Eleweke

ANNOUNCEMENTS

〉 Paul Dufour was a dear friend to many, a faithful parishioner, and a pillar of our OLA community. He lived his faith with deep spirituality, kindness, and a special devotion to Our Lady. Paul had a wonderful sense of humor and a quick response that often brought a smile to our faces. He often asked about his fellow parishioners at OLA, and his response was always, "I will pray for all at OLA." A reflection of his generous heart and his love for his parish family. Paul passed away peacefully at La Pietà on October 16th. He will be dearly missed and fondly remembered. May Our Lady guide him to her Son, and may he rest in God's eternal peace.

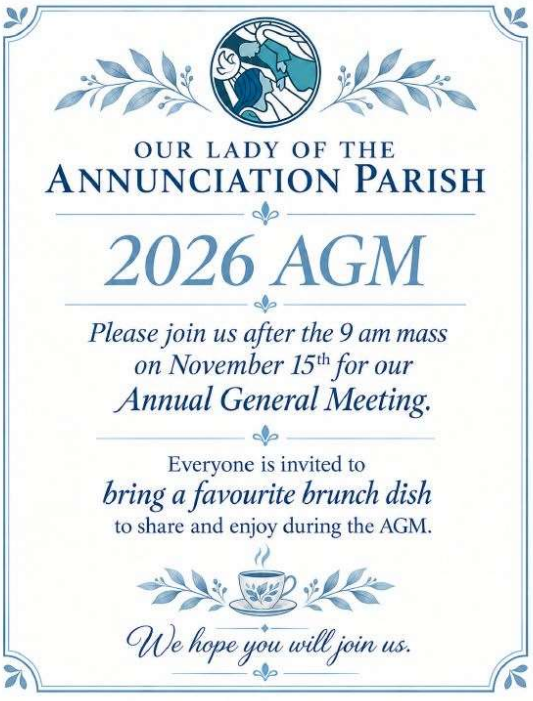

The obituary notice can be read at McEvoy-Shields Funeral Home & Chapel, and we ask that you keep him and the family in your prayers.

Visitation will take place at OLA on Monday, November 16th from 10am to 11:00am, followed by a funeral mass at 11am.

〉 Notice to Parishioners – Apartment Renovations
Please be advised that construction work on the priest's apartment will begin on Wednesday, November 11. Access to the main church and washrooms during services will not be affected, and all regular services will continue as usual. We kindly ask parishioners to avoid the construction area unless access is necessary. Your cooperation and understanding are greatly appreciated as this work gets underway. Thank you for your patience and support.

Please join us on Sunday November 5th for our Annual General Meeting. following the 9am mass.

We will enjoy a special Coffee Sunday Potluck and everyone is welcome.
